Mr. Farai Hove Masaisai is the founder of and Senior Partner at Hove & Associates, Attorneys-at-Law. He has been practicing in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago since the year 2010. He read law in the United Kingdom for five (5) years prior to returning to Trinidad and Tobago, he presently holds an LL.M Master of laws with Commendations in Sports Law from the Nottingham Law School.

Mr. Hove, as he is fondly called by his clients, is an advocate with extensive experience in the Magistrate Court, High Court and Court of Appeal. He specializes in complex Civil Litigation matters, including Fraud, Defamation, Property disputes, Constitutional Motions and Judicial Review Applications.

Mr. Hove has gained a successful reputation in representing numerous politicians and State Agencies in Defamation cases as well as contractual disputes as pertains to the procurement of goods and services and spending of public monies. He quite often works alongside Senior Counsel and has a keen eye for detail and pursuing arguments that seeks to expand the Jurisprudence of our nation's Civil Courts.

Mr. Hove also represents individual clients and quite often pursues Justice on a pro-bono basis when he perceives that persons are being taken advantage of. He has successfully challenged the State and State Agencies in Constitutional Motions and Judicial Review Applications when servants of the state have abused their powers and sought to trample on the rights of citizens and in the case of immigration, non-citizens.

Mr. Hove is a Chelsea Football Fan; a philanthropist, a devoted Anglican and a loving Father and Husband.
